4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 5,131,409 including grants of $) (Revenue $)
Residential Services: Tubman operates one shelter for up to 90 domestic violence victims and their children, located in Maplewood, MN. Families and individuals escaping a violent home receive food and a safe place to live on a short-term basis until they secure more permanent housing. Tubman staff, interns and volunteers assist residents through measurable support services to reach their goals, such as safety planning, housing information and resources, counseling, Orders for Protection and other legal services, financial and career information, parenting support and family activities. Access to cultural and spiritual support, health clinic and reparation claims information are also provided. Continued on Schedule O...

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 1,795,549 including grants of $) (Revenue $)
Legal Services: Critical legal advocacy, representation, and intervention services are provided by legal advocates, as well as staff, contract and volunteer attorneys primarily in Washington, Ramsey and Hennepin counties of Minnesota. Attorneys and advocates help domestic violence victims obtain life-saving protective orders, and advocates provide needed support to victims in criminal and civil court proceedings. In Suburban Ramsey and Washington Counties, law enforcement conducts lethality assessments and contacts Tubman advocates after responding to domestic assault calls so that victims can receive immediate advocacy and support. Continued on Schedule O...

4c (Code:) (Expenses $ 1,321,327 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 632,047)
Counseling & Therapy Services: Mental health services are provided in our community mental health clinic staffed by licensed professionals and graduate students from a variety of clinical disciplines. Services include individual, couples, family and group therapy. Signature programs include Dialectical Behavior Therapy (DBT) and culturally-specific DBT program serving the LGBTQ+ community and the Relationship Violence Intervention Program for people who have used violence in their relationships. Section A. All Supporting Organizations

- 1 Are all of the organization's supported organizations listed by name in the organization's governing documents? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organizations are designated. If designated by class or purpose, describe the designation. If historic and continuing relationship, explain.
- 2 Did the organization have any supported organization that does not have an IRS determination of status under section 509(a)(1) or (2)? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how the organization determined that the supported organization was described in section 509(a)(1) or (2).
- 3a Did the organization have a supported organization described in section 501(c)(4), (5), or (6)? If "Yes," answer lines 3b and 3c below.
- b Did the organization confirm that each supported organization qualified under section 501(c)(4), (5), or (6) and satisfied the public support tests under section 509(a)(2)? If "Yes," describe in Part VI when and how the organization made the determination.
- c Did the organization ensure that all support to such organizations was used exclusively for section 170(c)(2)(B) purposes? If "Yes," explain in Part VI what controls the organization put in place to ensure such use.
- 4a Was any supported organization not organized in the United States ("foreign supported organization")? If "Yes," and if you checked box 12a or 12b in Part I, answer lines 4b and 4c below.
- b Did the organization have ultimate control and discretion in deciding whether to make grants to the foreign supported organization? If "Yes," describe in Part VI how the organization had such control and discretion despite being controlled or supervised by or in connection with its supported organizations.
- c Did the organization support any foreign supported organization that does not have an IRS determination under sections 501(c)(3) and 509(a)(1) or (2)? If "Yes," explain in Part VI what controls the organization used to ensure that all support to the foreign supported organization was used exclusively for section 170(c)(2)(B) purposes.
- 5a Did the organization add, substitute, or remove any supported organizations during the tax year? If "Yes," answer lines 5b and 5c below (if applicable). Also, provide detail in Part VI, including (i) the names and EIN numbers of the supported organizations added, substituted, or removed; (ii) the reasons for each such action; (iii) the authority under the organization's organizing document authorizing such action; and (iv) how the action was accomplished (such as by amendment to the organizing document).
- b Type I or Type II only. Was any added or substituted supported organization part of a class already designated in the organization's organizing document?
- c Substitutions only. Was the substitution the result of an event beyond the organization's control?
- 6 Did the organization provide support (whether in the form of grants or the provision of services or facilities) to anyone other than (i) its supported organizations, (ii) individuals that are part of the charitable class benefited by one or more of its supported organizations, or (iii) other supporting organizations that also support or benefit one or more of the filing organization's supported organizations? If "Yes," provide detail in Part VI.
- 7 Did the organization provide a grant, loan, compensation, or other similar payment to a substantial contributor (as defined in section 4958(c)(3)(C)), a family member of a substantial contributor, or a 35% controlled entity with regard to a substantial contributor? If "Yes," complete Part I of Schedule L (Form 990).
- 8 Did the organization make a loan to a disqualified person (as defined in section 4958) not described on line 7? If "Yes," complete Part I of Schedule L (Form 990).
- 9a Was the organization controlled directly or indirectly at any time during the tax year by one or more disqualified persons, as defined in section 4946 (other than foundation managers and organizations described in section 509(a)(1) or (2))? If "Yes," provide detail in Part VI.
- b Did one or more disqualified persons (as defined on line 9a) hold a controlling interest in any entity in which the supporting organization had an interest? If "Yes," provide detail in Part VI.
- c Did a disqualified person (as defined on line 9a) have an ownership interest in, or derive any personal benefit from, assets in which the supporting organization also had an interest? If "Yes," provide detail in Part VI.
- 10a Was the organization subject to the excess business holdings rules of section 4943 because of section 4943(f) (regarding certain Type II supporting organizations, and all Type III non-functionally integrated supporting organizations)? If "Yes," answer line 10b below.

Part X - FIN 48 Footnote

The Internal Revenue Service has determined that Tubman is exempt from federal income tax under 501(c)(3) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code. It is also exempt from state income tax. However, any unrelated business income may be subject to taxation.

Tubman follows the accounting standards for contingencies in evaluating uncertain tax positions. This guidance prescribes recognition threshold principles for the financial statement recognition of tax positions taken or expected to be taken on a tax return that are not certain to be realized. No liability has been recognized by Tubman for uncertain tax positions as of September 30, 2025 and 2024. Tubman's tax returns are subject to review and examination by federal and state taxing authorities.

Form 990 - Organization's Mission

Tubman is a multi-service agency with nearly 50 years of experience providing crisis and support services, formed from the merger of Chrysalis, A Center for Women; Harriet Tubman Center; Family Violence Network; and ElderCare Rights Alliance. Tubman's vision is thriving people, healthy relationships, and peaceful communities. Our mission is to advance opportunities for change so that every person can experience safety, hope, and healing.

Each year, Tubman serves approximately 17,000 people of all ages, genders and cultural backgrounds who are facing relationship violence, trafficking, homelessness, addiction, mental health challenges, or other trauma.

In addition to the services described below, Tubman successfully completed the Great Dreams Campaign, a three-year sustainability campaign to invest in the places, programs and people that make Tubman a unique and critical community resource. This achievement was made possible through the collective generosity of individual donors, corporations, foundations, and state and federal appropriations ensuring that Tubman will continue to meet the evolving needs of families in crisis and survivors seeking stability.

The campaign funded critical facility improvements-including a new elevator, roof, windows, upgraded electrical systems, remodeled lobby and accessibility upgrades at Harriet Tubman Center East and improved program spaces throughout. We're pleased to announce that Harriet's Haven for Pets will open later in January 2026. This endeavor addresses a critical need as 89% of survivors with pets report that their beloved animal has been threatened, harmed, or killed as intimidation or revenge and nearly half of people experiencing relationship violence delay leaving an abusive relationship for fear over their pet's safety. By providing a safe and supportive place for people and pets to heal together, we are removing additional barriers to get the services they need to move from fear to freedom.

The Great Dream Campaign also supported Tubman in creating the business plan for the Tubman Food Innovation Center, a future social enterprise that would expand access to healthy food, create employment pathways, and generate long-term social enterprise revenue to support Tubman's mission. The plan is robust and evergreen yet will require raising an additional investment of $4.5 million for renovations and specialized equipment. We are committed to moving forward when we have capacity but have paused for the time being in order to focus on navigating the challenges of the current environment to preserve our core services.

Beyond bricks and mortar, the Great Dreams Campaign has strengthened Tubman's capacity to deliver critical services with greater efficiency, safety, and dignity. We also grew our community of supporters, welcoming more than 1,200 new donors who share our belief that every person deserves safety, stability, and opportunity.

In 2025, Tubman also established the Survivor Contingency Fund. This restricted fund is not meant to replace cuts in government funds but will help minimize disruption by supporting clients transitioning out of Tubman programs where program funding has been cut or reduced.

Tubman's services include safety planning; a 24/7 crisis and resource help

Tubman helps families, youth, and single adults who have experienced relationship violence to find and sustain housing in the community. Tubman uses a Rapid ReHousing model and provides comprehensive support services, financial assistance, including rental subsidy, and additional resources as needed.

Staff, interns, and volunteers assist clients in finding permanent affordable housing, provide transportation assistance for critical appointments and job interviews and help address long-term needs. The team helps clients develop customized education, career and financial goals, as well as provide individual and group support related to relationship violence, child development, parenting issues, family communication, and problem solving.

Youth and young adults who have experienced violence and exploitation, including sex trafficking, have access to onsite transitional housing through the Safe Journeys program, located at Harriet Tubman Center East in Maplewood, MN, and various community-based sites. A full array of support services is provided to all young people in our housing programs, including helping youth develop customized educational, personal, social, spiritual, career, financial, and long-term goals.

Attorneys, assisted by law students and paralegal interns, provide legal representation, advice and information primarily in family law matters. Tubman's Safety Program provides pro bono legal representation to low-income victims of domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking who are seeking Orders for Protection and Harassment Restraining Orders in Hennepin, Washington, and Ramsey counties.

Tubman partners with several other organizations to reach specific communities, including: the Aurora Center at the University of Minnesota to provide on-campus legal advice and representation to college students who have experienced dating violence and/or sexual assault; and the Immigrant Law Center of Minnesota and Esperanza United to provide comprehensive legal services to immigrant families experiencing relationship violence.

In addition, Tubman offers a medication clinic for people participating in our addiction-informed mental health programs, as well as outside referrals. Drop-in mixed issues therapy groups and peer support groups are available to people experiencing mental and chemical health issues. Other therapy groups focus on trauma, healthy relationships and parenting, chronic health issues, and the use of expressive art to process emotions and life experiences. Tubman's clinical services are provided to people of all gender identities, and individual services are provided for youth and adolescents.

The Relationship Violence Intervention Program provides therapeutic treatment for self-referred and court-ordered domestic abuse offenders of all genders. Tubman's relationship violence counseling program is designed to help people hold themselves accountable to end their violent behavior and maintain healthy relationships. Services include a 21-week group curriculum led by a master's level therapist and individual counseling, if desired. Couples counseling is available when requested by both parties, after individual treatment has been completed and with ongoing safety assessments.

Additionally, chemical dependency case management and state licensed chemical dependency (formerly Rule 25) assessments are offered. Crisis counseling and short-term therapy are also available onsite for shelter residents.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d - All Other AccomplishmentsYouth Services:

Services for youth and children in residential programs include: individual support, safety planning, goal planning, age-specific support groups and recreational activities, respite child care, assistance with homework, school transitions and employment goals, financial coaching, health access, dating violence prevention and youth leadership, conflict resolution skills, family activities and resource referrals for these and/or other requests.

Tubman also serves youth in community-based settings and receives referrals from schools, coordinated entry, the juvenile justice system and other community partners to serve youth of all genders between the ages of 10-24 who are survivors of or at risk for, dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and exploitation, and stalking, including youth who are homeless or precariously housed. In our Inspiring Youth program, youth workers meet with clients in home and/or community locations to access resources and develop customized goal plans to meet basic needs and support both their short and longer term aspirations. Youth workers provide intensive case management services to ensure youth overcome barriers associated with challenges faced, and support them in meeting personal goals like improved relationships, violence prevention, parenting support, safety planning, educational or economic advancement, rent search and assistance, housing access and home ownership resources, job search and career development, managing finances, basic banking, legal resources, civic engagement, leadership, cultural and/or spiritual connections in order to advance holistic life pursuits.

Tubman's Movement for Violence Prevention (MVP) program includes a variety of services and activities to help youth learn skills for healthy relationships and peer leadership opportunities. This includes young people serving as peer advisors and community activists, and using interactive media to shape and deliver teen-generated content to families, schools, and faith communities. Tubman's Voices in Prevention (VIP) program is a school-based violence prevention program for middle and high school students. This culturally relevant and interactive curriculum provides youth with the tools to assess, reflect, prevent, respond and take action to address dating violence and other challenges in order to improve personal and societal conditions. Taught by Tubman youth educators, the program serves students in over 23 public, alternative, and charter schools in Minneapolis, St. Paul, throughout suburban Ramsey and Washington Counties, and the surrounding metro and Dakota County.

NorthStar Youth Outreach Center is largely a volunteer supported drop-in center based in the community at Maplewood Mall. The center provides advocacy, safety planning and connections to a range of additional community resources, like access to counseling, housing, career, legal, health, recreation, spiritual and educational assistance, computers and wifi, laundry, supplies, food and clothing, and creative art spaces.

Workshops and Support Groups:

Additional support is also provided by Tubman staff, interns, and professional volunteers in the community, with a range of opportunities for people seeking to make and sustain changes in their lives. These services are designed to help participants meet their basic needs during crisis, remain self-sufficient during transition, prevent future crises and maintain stability in the face of economic and life challenges.

Resource Advocacy and a 24-Hour crisis line supported by volunteers provide safety planning and connection to resources within the agency or in the community regarding a wide range of issues.

Support groups offer a forum for people to connect with others experiencing similar challenges and changes in order to find encouragement, share coping strategies, obtain resources and to strengthen personal support networks.

Jobs, education and finance support that is accessible to shelter and housing clients, people participating in other Tubman services and through community-based referrals. Career development and financial support is designed to increase stability by reducing barriers for people facing challenges in these areas due to the impact of domestic and dating violence, including exploitation. Tubman staff focus on partnering with people served to develop goals and cover topics like budgeting, basic banking, credit and credit repair, debt management and building savings and access to mainstream resources, as well as additional community-based resources and connections to overcome challenges.

Public Education Services:

Tubman's community education services include the comprehensive website Tubman.org; participation in community events to raise awareness of issues and services, and trained Tubman Ambassadors to speak to faith, civic and workplace groups. Tubman is regularly called upon to conduct training for professionals, including those in the fields of education, law enforcement and legal services, healthcare, senior programs, business leaders, and other service providers. Topics include relationship violence and safety planning, trafficking, trauma-informed service delivery, specialized addiction-informed mental health therapies, parenting issues and child development.

Tubman partners with policy-makers at all levels to collaborate on issues impacting the people who seek services at Tubman, including affordable housing, poverty, community violence, racial disparities and more. This work includes partnerships and collaborations with other nonprofits, advocacy coalitions, government agency representatives, elected official and community members.

Tubman also partners with colleges and universities to provide quality learning opportunities to students in and out of the classroom, serving as a field placement for nearly 90 students per year from a variety of disciplines. Tubman staff also serve as adjunct faculty, guest lecturers, and research committee advisors.
