We work with ThinkSelf to strengthen our advocacy services for survivors who are deaf or hard of hearing. Countless Ways to Help

Want to make a positive impact in your community?

Tubman relies on interns and volunteers to make a difference in every facet of our work. From our Child Specialist Interns in the shelter to our Resource Advocates who provide support and resources to callers, to the administrative volunteers who lend their skills behind-the-scenes... the passion, energy, and commitment of our amazing interns and volunteers is essential to Tubman's daily work in supporting the people we serve and our community.

Volunteer and Intern Training

Tubman's Intern and Volunteer Services team provides an in-depth orientation and training series that new volunteers, interns, and staff attend. Topics include Tubman's comprehensive services and approaches, privilege and intersectionality, ethics and boundaries, self-care, relationship violence, legal systems, trauma, and crisis and de-escalation skills.

The five-part series—offered in January, May, and August—allows all interns and volunteers to gain an understanding of Tubman as an organization, the philosophies and guidelines for interacting with those we serve, to meet other new interns and volunteers, and to cultivate knowledge and skills needed for their new positions.

Will you join us?

Contact us today about volunteering or interning at Tubman. You can give us a call directly at (612) 767-6680, email us at volunteer@tubman.org, or check out our current volunteer and internship opportunities and complete an application at www.tubman.org/give-help/volunteerintern.

Criminal Court Advocacy

Victims of domestic assault and related crimes in suburban Ramsey County (misdemeanor and gross misdemeanor) and Washington County (misdemeanor, gross misdemeanor, and felonies) can receive help from a legal advocate. Advocates provide information on the court process and meet with victims at court. Resources are available to assist with remote court hearings.

Orders for Protection (OFP)

Tubman legal advocates can write and file Orders for Protection, and can assist at Order for Protection hearings in Hennepin, Washington, and suburban Ramsey counties. Resources are available to assist with remote court hearings.

The OFP Process: An advocate will help the client (petitioner) write the statement describing the abuse (affidavit). The affidavit will go to a judge, and if the judge signs it an emergency OFP is in place immediately. This order is then served on the abuser (respondent), who has a right to request a hearing. The client may need to go to court, so keeping documentation (police reports, photos, texts, e-mails, etc.) is helpful.
